

PAST ECKENHOFF LECTURES

|   |  |
|---|--|
| 1st Marilyn Hennessy  | Retirement Research Foundation   |
| 2nd Huber Warner, PhD   | National Institute on Aging  |
| 3rd David A. Peterson, PhD  | Ethel Percy AndrusGerontology CenterUniv of Southern California  |
| 4th Thomas T. Yoshikawa, MD   | Charles R. Drew University   |
| 5th Quentin Young, MD   | Health in Medicine ResearchGroup   |
| 6th Bruce C. Vladeck, PhD   | Institute for Medicare PracticeMount Sinai School of Medicine  |
| 7th Richard W. Besdine, MD  | Center for Gerontology andHealth Care ResearchBrown University   |
| 8th Linda L. Emanuel, MD, PhD                                       | Buehler Center on Aging,Feinberg School of Medicine,Northwestern University  |
| 9th Jamie H. Von Roenn, MDandCharles F. von Gunten, MD, PhD | Feinberg School of Medicine,Northwestern UniversityCenter for Palliative Studies,San Diego Hospice                 |
| 10th James Vanden Bosch   | Terra Nova Films   |
| 11th Eric E. Whitaker, MD, MPH                                      | Illinois Dept of Public Health andAssistant Professor, Rush MedicalCollege Dept of Medicine andPreventive Medicine |

Buehler Center

on Aging, Health & Society

The 12th Annual Eckenhoff Lecture

Monday, October 29th, 2007
3:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Pritzker Auditorium
Northwestern Memorial Hospital
Chicago, Illinois

NORTHWESTERN
UNIVERSITY

The Eckenhoff Lecture

Opening Remarks

J. Larry Jameson, MD, PhD
Vice President for Medical Affairs
Lewis Landsberg Dean,
Feinberg School of Medicine
Northwestern University

Welcome

Linda L. Emanuel, MD, PhD
Buehler Professor of Medicine
Director, Buehler Center on Aging,
Health & Society

“Suffering on Both Sides
Of the Sheet: Burdens of Professional Caregiving”

Martha L. Twaddle, MD, FACP
Chief Medical Officer, Midwest
Palliative & Hospice CareCenter

Please join us for light refreshments directly following the event.

The Buehler Center on Aging, Health & Society would like to extend a special thank you to the Eckenhoff Family for their continued support of our annual lecture.

Martha L. Twaddle, MD, FACP, FAAHPM A nationally recognized expert in hospice and palliative medicine, Dr. Twaddle has served as a medical director of Midwest Palliative & Hospice CareCenter since 1989 and became chief medical officer of the organization in 2004. She is program director of the Midwest Fellowship in Palliative Medicine, which has been distinguished among local and national community-based fellowship programs through accreditation by the American Board of Hospice and Palliative Medicine . In 2006, Dr. Twaddle was honored in the naming of the first Midwest Palliative & Hospice CareCenter endowed chair, the Martha L. Twaddle, MD, Chair of Palliative Medicine. Dr. Twaddle is the first physician to hold this position, which is the highest honor the organization bestows.

Dr. Twaddle is active in research, speaks regularly to local and national groups and has published extensively on the importance and benefits of hospice and palliative medicine. She is a senior attending physician at Evanston Hospital and on the attending staff at Lake Forest Hospital, Rush North Shore Medical Center and Northwestern Memorial Hospital.

James E. Eckenhoff, MD, (1915 - 1996), was Professor of Anesthesiology and Dean of the Feinberg School of Medicine from 1970 to 1983, and a member of the faculty from 1966 until his death in 1996. He was president of the McGaw Medical Center of Northwestern University from 1980 to 1985, and thus the founding dean and president of the Buehler Center on Aging. Dr.

Eckenhoff was an internationally recognized anesthesiologist whom after retiring, served as a distinguished physician consultant for the Veterans Administration. Dr. Eckenhoff was honored by medical organizations in the U.S., England, New Zealand, Australia, and South Africa, including the Hunterian Professorship of the Royal College of Physicians.