ANUW’s annual members-only breakfast will take place at the Allen Center on Thursday, October 20, 2004 from 7:30 am – 9:30 am. This year’s breakfast will again feature table topics that will provide participants with the opportunity to discuss issues of interest, as well as network with other NU women.

The table topics will include the following: Networking strategies at NU; Mentoring; From staff to supervisor: how do you prepare?; From non-exempt to exempt; Advancing your career while pursuing your education; and Managing change. The table discussions will be moderated by NU women including, Meg McDonald, Director of Finance and Administration Office of the Vice President for Research, Cari Miller, Coordinator, Graduate Medical Education, Shericka Pringle, Financial Manager, Bluhm Legal Clinic, Jody Reeme, Support Specialist, Training and Deployment Team, Information Technology, Kristin Yates Thomas, Administrative Coordinator, Undergraduate Housing, and Marcie Weiss, Assistant Dean for Faculty Affairs, Feinberg School of Medicine. Breakfast participants must RSVP to Cari Miller (c-miller3@northwestern.edu or 312-503-0887) by Monday, October 18, 2004.

The annual breakfast is also the time for the ANUW membership to elect the officers for fiscal year 2005. Thank you to all who participated on the nomination committee. ANUW is pleased to announce the slate of officers to be voted upon at the annual fall breakfast on Wednesday, October 20, 2004.

As provided under the ANUW by-laws, current ANUW Vice-President, Joan Trimuel will transition to the responsibilities of president this year. Joan is currently an Audit Supervisor in the Auditing Department and has been with Northwestern for five years. For the past three years, she has served as a co-chair of the ANUW Publicity Committee. She has also served in other volunteer capacities at NU including the Take Our Daughters to Work Day and as a mentor for freshmen students. Joan is a Certified Public Accountant and received her B.S. in Accounting from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and her M.S. in Education with an emphasis in Higher Education Administration from Northwestern University.

Caryn Tomasiewicz, Vice President: Caryn has been at NU for two years in the Department of Computer Science, where she is the Student Services Coordinator. Prior to NU, Caryn worked as an English teacher in Japan. In addition to serving as the Program Chair for ANUW in 2003-04, she was also secretary of the McCormick Staff Strategy Steering Committee and is the Chapter Sponsor of the Northwestern University ACM-W (Association of Computing Machinery-Women). Caryn has a BA in English Literature from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign and is currently a student in the MALS program, where she is focusing on Latin American literature and politics.

Mary Tobin, Treasurer: Mary began her career at Northwestern University in 1994 as a Program Manager for Kellogg Executive Programs. She is currently Associate Director, Office of Research Operations and Planning. Mary currently serves as the Treasurer of ANUW and has been a member of the organization for several years. In addition, Mary has participated in the “Take Our Daughters to Work Program”. Mary has a M.A. degree in English from Northwestern University and a MSIR and Human Resources degree from Loyola University.

Kristin Yates Thomas, Secretary: Kristin is the Administrative Coordinator for Undergraduate Housing and has been at Northwestern for two years. Last year, she served as a Member At Large on the ANUW Board of Directors. In a volunteer capacity, she has been involved with both the planning of the annual Northwestern Department of Student Affairs Conference as well as a presenter. Kristin has a B.A in Classics from the University of British Columbia, and is currently pursuing a Master of Science degree in Higher Education Administration from the School of Education and Social Policy at Northwestern.
