ANUW’s annual members-only breakfast will take place at the Allen Center, Park Dining Room, on Thursday, October 18, 2007 from 7:30am – 9:30am. This year’s breakfast will again feature table topics that will provide participants with the opportunity to discuss issues of interest, as well as network. The table topics and the discussion facilitators will include the following:

- Managing Up Learning to create an open exchange of ideas between your supervisor and yourself to yield measurable results, Gretchen Nester, Manager of HR Consulting, Human Resources.

- Are You Marketable? How to prepare yourself for the next step or change in your career, Gail Higgins, HR Consultant, Human Resources.

- The Glass Ceiling or Sticky Floor Are women our own enemies when it comes to moving forward within our careers?, Joan Trimuel, Business Systems Project Manager, Office of Financial Operations.

- How Do Women Lead How do the leadership styles of women differ from those of men, Meg McDonald, Executive Director, Office for Research Planning, Finance and Communications.

- How to Juggle It All Managing the routines and lifestyles of work and family, Abra Kitei, Assistant Director, Career Services, Kellogg Certificate Program for Undergraduates.

Breakfast participants must RSVP to Lot Bercasio, l-bercasio@northwestern.edu by Friday, October 12, 2007. Annual dues of $10 can be paid at the breakfast. To expedite the check-in process please have checks made out to ANUW.

2007-2008 Election

The annual breakfast is also the time for the ANUW membership to elect the officers for fiscal year 2008. ANUW is pleased to announce the slate of officers to be voted upon at the breakfast.

President: Carol Michelini
Carol served as ANUW’s Vice President during the 2006-2007 year. Carol joined Northwestern University May 2005 as a Human Resources Consultant in the Staffing and Consulting Division of Human Resources on the Chicago campus. In her role, she offers advice and guidance on HR issues to the Office for Research, the School of Continuing Studies, and the Law School. Prior to joining NU, Carol worked as an independent consultant for LQE (Leadership for Quality Education) assisting with training principals and local school. Carol graduated from Loyola University in Chicago with a BA in Liberal Arts, and began her career as a English teacher. She still enjoys sharing knowledge with others and does so by being a tour guide at the Newberry Library in Chicago and at the Frances Willard House in Evanston.

Vice President: Open
This could be you!
Secretary: Seletta Goodall-Nichols

Seletta Goodall-Nichols has been with Northwestern University since 2003, starting out in the Institute for Healthcare Studies and General Internal Medicine. She is currently the Financial Administrator 2 for this combined group, as well as the Department of Medicine Counselor for the Supplier Diversity Program. Seletta has a degree in Economics/Accounting from Tougaloo College and recently completed the Master’s Program in Public Policy Administration from NU’s School of Continuing Studies.

Treasurer: Helen Hutten

Helen Hutten is currently General Accountant, ASRSP, on the Evanston campus. Prior to joining ASRSP, she worked as a project coordinator at Medill with a Knight Foundation grant. She joined ANUW within her first few months at NU. Before coming to Northwestern, Helen worked for many years at Cardinal Health as a project leader designing and implementing computer systems. She served for several years as Treasurer of BWI, the women’s networking organization at Baxter, Allegiance and Cardinal Health. She has worked in public schools teaching students of all ages and as a leader in numerous community organizations. Helen has a B.A. in English from Northwestern and an M.A. from NIU in literature and linguistics. A believer in life-long learning she just completed an SCS course in Public Relations.

Additional information about the candidates and our upcoming programs for 2007 can be found on ANUW’s website.

Sincerely,

Ila Allen, President, 2006-2007, ANUW
