ANUW’s ANNUAL SPRING EVENT
TUESDAY, MAY 24 AT 3:30 P.M.

This year’s Annual Spring Event will feature speaker Liz Ryan, CEO and Founder of WorldWIT (Women.Insights.Technology). WorldWIT is the leading global online and offline network for women in business and technology. Based in Boulder, Colorado, WorldWIT provides resources to support the advancement of women at the intersection of work and life. Liz began WorldWIT in 1999 as a Chicago-based networking organization because she believed “smart women should know each other.” Today, there are over 70 chapters worldwide, providing networking, mentoring and support to 35,000 members in 25 countries around the planet. WorldWIT was hailed as Women’s Business Association of the Year at The 2004 Stevie Awards for Women Entrepreneurs.

Liz Ryan, a NU alumna, will focus her discussion on networking, how to know what you are worth in the marketplace and women and self-sabotage (how we shoot ourselves in the foot). The event will be presented on Thursday, May 24, 2005 at 3:30 p.m. in The Robert H. Lurie Medical Research Center, Baldwin Auditorium (303 E. Superior), Chicago Campus. The discussion is open to all employees. Afterwards, there will be a reception with Liz Ryan for ANUW members only. New members are welcome to join ANUW at the reception.

Please R.S.V.P. by Tuesday, May 17, 2005 to Program Committee Co-Chair Cari Miller by phone at 3-0887 or via email at c-miller3@northwestern.edu.

Celebrate Our Success. . .

There is more INSPIRATION among us. ANUW solicits from our membership on personal and professional achievements. Please join ANUW in celebrating and congratulating the following members:

In February, Karen Healy Stover became the Business Administrator of the Department of Mechanical Engineering after serving as the Business Administrator in the Department of Computer Science.

In February, Ila Allen was promoted from Business Administrator in Center for Talent Development to the position of Administrative Coordinator in the Office of Research Operations and Planning.

...Committed to encouraging and supporting all women at Northwestern University who are interested in professional development...
