

Leticia Domingo

Leticia.domingo@gmail.com
303-555-6765

Campus Address:

2100 Orrington Ave, Evanston, IL 60201

Permanent Address:

436 Genoa Ct, Boulder, CO 80051

Education

Northwestern University, Evanston, IL

June 2022

Bachelor of Science in Education and Social Policy

Concentration in Social Policy / Minor in Psychology

GPA: 3.48/4.00

Work Experience

BRiCK LLC, Project Manager Intern, Chicago, IL

June 2021-Aug. 2021

- Advised the Attorney General on how to award affordable housing grants to 70 recipients
- Collaborated with a team of 4 to plan a conference on suburban poverty for 25 Chicago organizations
- Created and presented 10 recommendations for housing policy initiatives in Kansas City, MO

Northwestern University Settlement House, Intern at Office of External Affairs, Chicago, IL

Jan. 2021-March 2021

- Designed and created the content for the volunteer section of the organization's new website (www.nush.org)
- Produced 3 newsletters for donors and board members, reaching over 300 individuals
- Volunteered at the food pantry once a week for 200+ clients and in a Head Start classroom twice a month

Northwestern University, Intern at Center for Forced Migration Studies, Evanston, IL

Oct. 2020-Dec. 2020

- Conducted 20+ literature reviews on the relationship between health information technologies and low-literacy populations
- Wrote memos on the United Nations Refugee Agency's Dialogue of refugees' protection challenges
- Partnered with central administration to develop a crowd-sourced map of the living conditions of refugees across the world

Illinois Public Health Institute, Intern at Illinois Alliance to Prevent Obesity, Chicago, IL

June 2020-Sept. 2020

- Published policy briefs to stakeholders on issues central to the obesity problem
- Drafted and sent letters to state government representatives to encourage obesity prevention legislation
- Analyzed research and created a newsletter on the benefits of breastfeeding, circulated to 35+ organizations
- Presented to health advocacy groups on the consequences of sugar-loaded drinks

Leadership Experience

GlobeMed, Co-Director, Global HealthU Co-Chair, Day of World Social Justice Chair, Evanston, IL

Jan. 2020-Present

- Facilitate a 30-minute weekly lecture on a global health issue for a group of 30 students
- Plan 8 activities and events that create awareness of global health inequity
- Manage meetings each week to maintain order and productivity in the group

Sheil Catholic Center, Treasurer, Student Advisory Board, Evanston, IL

Jan. 2020-Present

- Create and monitor $9000 budget for club programs including fundraising, mission trips and community gatherings
- Oversee Sheil Student Organization Finance Office account, including maintaining the ledger
- Organize and budget for major events such as Alternate Student Break trip to Nicaragua with Fabretto Children's Organization (December 2017), Sheil Formal (Spring 2018), and Spring Retreat (Spring 2018)

Center for Civic Engagement, Outreach and AMPED Fellow, Evanston, IL

Sept. 2018-Dec. 2019

- Created outreach materials and presentations to the university community about civic engagement opportunities
- Launched the Arts and Music Programs for Education in Detention Centers and provided instruction to nine 15-17 year-olds for 10 consecutive weeks
- Facilitated discussion among the 8-10 other mentors about the juvenile justice system and civic engagement

Volunteer Experience

Christopher House, Student Assistant, Chicago, IL

Jan. 2020-Present

- Engage children in physical activities during recess to promote healthy habits
- Tutor 3-4 children in reading 2 books a day

Community Servings, Alternative Student Break Participant, Boston, MA

Jan.2019-March 2019

- Prepared 400+ tailored meals and delivered 5 meals a day to the critically ill

Refugee Family Services, Alternative Student Break Participant, Atlanta, GA

Jan.2019-March 2018

- Tutored in a 3-hour after-school program for 50 child refugees in subjects such as writing and science
- Strengthened the children's life skills such as discipline and open-mindedness through lessons and social activities