Referral Guide for First Year McCormick Students

If a student says:

- What classes do I take?
- What does an engineering major do?
- I want to be an engineer but I do not know what major to declare
- When do I have to declare a major?
- I need help with my time management and/or study skills
- I am interested in declaring an additional major, minor or certificate
- I am interested in doing study abroad

Refer student to:

McCormick First Year Advisers
Ford 1.200, 2133 Sheridan Rd.

McCormick Office of Career Development (MCD)
Ford 2.350, 2133 Sheridan Rd.

Northwestern Career Advancement (NCA)
620 Lincoln Street

Undergraduate Academic Advising Center (UAAC)
1940 Sheridan Rd.

NOTE: For first-year students that are unsure if they want to be an engineering major or are considering changing their majors, contact your McCormick First Year Adviser. The First Year Adviser will make the necessary referral to the McCormick Office of Career Development (MCD) or Northwestern Career Advancement (NCA).