

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY FACULTY ASSEMBLY

Tuesday, November 11, 2014

Abbott Auditorium in Pancoe-NSUHS Life Sciences Pavilion - Evanston Campus

Wieboldt Hall 421 - Chicago Campus

4:15 - 5:45 p.m.

AGENDA:

1. Welcome by NU President and Assembly Chair Morton Schapiro and Faculty Senate Chair Stephen Eisenman
2. Announcement of inquiry by Senate Education Committee into initiatives to enhance low-income student retention. Announcement of Senate Budget Committee examination of the costs and priorities of low-income student recruitment. Discussion of financial and ethical issues.
3. Do students take (and professors teach) too many courses? Can technology facilitate off-campus teaching and learning?
4. Salary: the conflict between retention bonuses and reward for merit. Should there be a reorientation toward the latter?
5. A new faculty club? Provost Linzer has offered immediate use of the Great Room at Seabury. What about in new, Campus Center? Brief discussion.
6. Announcement of planned annual publication of non-tenure faculty eligible (NTE) salary data.
7. Sports policy: What do we want sports at NU to look like in five years/ten years? Who decides?
8. Announcement of Senate Research Committee inquiry into in vivo sourcing of antibodies and review of NU's commitment to mandated 3Rs protocols.
9. Title IX and campus safety developments. Time frame for creation of faculty-led panel that determines sanctions. Brief discussion.
10. Announcement of Senate Rights and Responsibilities Committee review of online privacy issues.
11. Announcement of Senate press for implementation of a campus smoking ban, approved by resolution, 2013.
12. Status of Task Force on Climate Change/Sustainability Council.
13. Adjournment
