Dolores Zohrab Liebmann Fellowship

The Dolores Zohrab Liebmann Fund administered by JPMorgan, Trustee. Mrs. Liebmann was the daughter of a prominent Armenian intellectual, writer and statesman and was married to one of the owners of a successful American business. She supported students and educational and charitable organizations during her lifetime. Mrs. Liebmann's primary concern, as expressed in her Will, was to attract and support students with outstanding character and ability who hold promise for achievement and distinction in their chosen fields of study.

The program of study being pursued by the candidate may include any recognized field of study in the humanities, social sciences, or natural sciences (including law, medicine, engineering, architecture or other formal professional training). The selection committee has a strong preference for supporting scholarly endeavors.

Applicants must be US Citizens and have demonstrable financial need.

This award offers $18,000 and is renewable. Each nominating institution may nominate up to three (3) candidates. Interested applicants should contact Stephen Hill in the Office of Fellowships for additional details and the official application document.

Campus Screening Deadline – December 11th @ 12:00 noon. On this deadline all potential applicants will be evaluated by the Liebmann Committee to select three (3) applications for nomination. Results will be announced on or before Dec. 20th.
