RESOURCES FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Begin your search at the Northwestern's Graduate Fellowship Website, then browse lists of fellowships at other universities. Your search should not end until you search national fellowships databases: IEFA (specific to international study), IRIS, GRAPES, and COS. In addition, contact major organizations that support international students. Good luck searching!

NATIONAL FELLOWSHIP DATABASES

These databases collect opportunities commonly advertised in the U.S. You should also look for similar databases in your home country. Frequently the national research council hosts these sites.
