A Message from the University President

As we prepare to celebrate Northwestern’s Commencement—one of our most important University events—we pause to celebrate and honor you, our graduates.

We are aware of the sacrifices made by each one of you and your families in reaching this milestone. As we move ahead, we appropriately look to the future of this great institution and its graduates with renewed hope for peace and a spirit of service to others.

The time has come to use the lessons learned here in fulfilling the promise of your generation. For in years to come, what will matter most is the world you have created for those who follow.

I extend my gratitude and heartfelt congratulations to you and your families, and I look forward to greeting you at Commencement.

Morton Schapiro
President and Professor

Greetings from the University Commencement Planning Committee

On behalf of the Commencement Planning Committee, I am pleased to invite you to attend Northwestern’s 2014 Commencement ceremony. To guide our guests and participants, we have provided this booklet. Included is an outline of the general plans for Commencement weekend, a complete schedule of events, and other important details. Updated information is available at www.northwestern.edu/commencement. Inquiries are also welcome at the Office of Special Events, 847-491-3600 or commencement@northwestern.edu.

This information is provided to undergraduate students who have been identified by the Office of the Registrar as candidates for degrees in June or August 2014 and to their families. Candidates for advanced degrees will receive this information from their respective schools. It is important to know that attainment of the degree is dependent upon the student’s completing all requirements, some of which may be pending at this time. Please be aware that receipt of this booklet does not imply eligibility to graduate.

Commencement arrangements are designed to provide a pleasant and meaningful experience for the graduates, their families, and guests on this special occasion. I welcome your presence for a memorable day at Northwestern’s 2014 Commencement ceremony.

Chael Wright-Isak
Chair
Northwestern University’s Commencement will be held at 9:30 a.m. Friday, June 20, 2014, at Ryan Field. The ceremony will be outdoors and is expected to last two hours. Distribution of diplomas will take place at individual school convocations on Friday and Saturday, June 20 and 21.

In the event of light rain, Friday’s ceremony will remain outdoors, and guests and participants are advised to be prepared for the weather. Should there be severe weather, the ceremony may be moved indoors. Severe Weather Plan announcements will be made Friday morning on radio station WNUR 89.3 FM. The information will also be available on the Northwestern home page, www.northwestern.edu.

To preserve the dignity of the ceremony and the safety of those in attendance, guests are not permitted on Ryan Field at any time. Alcoholic beverages, musical instruments, large purses, coolers, bags, backpacks, glass bottles or cups, cans, thermoses, ice chests, picnic baskets, beach balls, and other inflatable items are prohibited and may be confiscated by University staff. No one carrying alcoholic beverages will be allowed entry to the ceremonies.

We ask all participants to refrain from using cellphones during the procession and ceremony.

Ryan Field and Welsh-Ryan Arena–McGaw Memorial Hall are smoke-free environments. Your understanding and cooperation are appreciated.

A live webcast of the ceremony may be viewed at www.northwestern.edu/commencement.
Precommencement and Commencement Day Events

The ceremony begins with the procession of graduates, the faculty, and the President’s party. The two-hour program includes the awarding of honorary degrees, speakers’ remarks, the President’s message to graduates, and the conferring of degrees by school.

Diplomas are not awarded during Commencement. They are presented at the schools’ individual convocations on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, June 19, 20, and 21. Please see pages 14–18 for details.
Information for Graduates

Academic Dress
Purple rental gowns custom designed for Northwestern and featuring the University crest are the standard regalia and must be worn by all participating candidates. Tassels feature the Northwestern seal signet and are worn on the left side at all times. Candidates may not alter or decorate their regalia in any way or wear additional articles not directly related to academic merit. Doing so may interfere with their ability to participate. Bachelor’s degree regalia include a souvenir stole. Advanced degree candidates wear hoods. The lining of the Northwestern hood is purple and gold, and the color of the velvet border of the hood indicates the academic area. Please see pages 19–20 for tassel and hood border colors. All degree candidates may retain their cap and tassel. Bachelor’s degree candidates may also retain their souvenir stole. PhD candidates may elect to purchase the official Northwestern gown and should contact NUregalia@gmail.com to make those arrangements.

Ordering Caps and Gowns
Rental arrangements for caps and gowns must be made online by May 9, 2014, at www.northwestern.edu/commencement /students. Cap and gown rental fees are $52.70 for undergraduates, $64.69 for master’s degrees, and $82.59 for doctoral degrees. Candidates who do not order by May 9 may make a direct rental based on availability at the time of distribution (see next page) and will be charged a $20 late fee. Both rental fee and late fee are payable in cash only; checks and credit cards will not be accepted.

To order your cap and gown, follow the prompts on the website. Be sure to select the appropriate school of enrollment and degree. Graduate School and School of Continuing Studies candidates must select the correct degree to receive the appropriate color of tassel and hood. Within all other schools there is no distinction among a school’s degrees regarding tassel or hood color, and in some cases degrees may be identified only as bachelor’s, master’s, or doctoral. Candidates receiving degrees from two schools must select one degree and may arrange for a second tassel or hood at the time of cap and gown distribution. For a list of degrees awarded by school, see pages 19–20.

Distribution and Return of Caps and Gowns
Caps and gowns are distributed in Norris University Center’s Louis Room as follows:

- Undergraduate Candidates
  Tuesday, June 17, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

- Advanced Degree Candidates
  Wednesday, June 18, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Locations and times for cap and gown return are listed on the information sheet provided at cap and gown distribution. All degree candidates may retain their cap and tassel. Bachelor’s degree candidates may also retain their souvenir stole. Distribution of diplomas may be dependent on return of rental gowns and hoods.

Ticket Allotment and Pickup
Each participating candidate is entitled to the following allotment of tickets:

- Commencement at Ryan Field 10 tickets
- Severe Weather Plan at Welsh-Ryan Arena 2 tickets

Candidates may obtain their allotment of tickets online through University Tickets, www.universitytickets.com. To obtain tickets, candidates must have their WildCARD and a valid email address.

Individual school convocation ticket information is provided to candidates by their respective schools. Questions should be directed to the individual school offices. Please see page 25 for a list of phone numbers.
Assembly for Academic Procession
Candidates must present themselves in cap and gown promptly at 9 a.m. on Friday, June 20, at the assembly points listed below. Assembly points are also indicated on the map on page 12. University marshals will direct candidates to the appropriate line-up areas and lead the procession onto Ryan Field beginning at 9:30 a.m. Seats cannot be held for candidates who arrive late. There is no rehearsal prior to the ceremony. Graduates are asked to refrain from using mobile phones or other communication devices during the procession and ceremony. Complete assembly instructions are provided to candidates at the time of cap and gown distribution.

Graduate School, Weinberg College of Arts and Sciences, and School of Continuing Studies

Hometown News Release Form
The hometown news release form for undergraduates is found at www.northwestern.edu/hometownnews.

Senior Week
The Senior Class Council 2014 sponsors various educational and social activities throughout the year, with Senior Week 2014 as the finale. A link to event information will be available on the Northwestern Class Alliance website, http://groups.northwestern.edu/nca, as Senior Week approaches.

Services for Students with Disabilities
Degree candidates with special needs are asked to contact the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities at 847-467-5530 or ssd@northwestern.edu for arrangements.

Information for Families and Guests

Shuttle Bus Service and General Parking
The University provides continuous complimentary shuttle bus service between the main Evanston campus and the Ryan Field–McGaw Memorial Hall area Friday, June 20, from 8:15 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Saturday, June 21, from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. Parking in the Ryan Field–McGaw Memorial Hall area will be very limited. Guests are urged to park in campus lots and use the shuttle bus service. University parking permits are not required for parking in campus lots on June 20 or 21. A map indicating campus and public parking lots and the shuttle bus route is found on page 22. A sign will be posted at each shuttle stop.

Handicapped Parking
Handicapped parking is available in all campus parking lots, and a fully accessible bus is available at all shuttle stops (see page 22). Parking for vehicles displaying a valid handicapped tag as well as a drop-off site for guests with disabilities are available at the stadium.

Commencement Seating (Ryan Field)
Tickets are required for all seating at Ryan Field. Participating candidates may obtain their allotment of up to 10 tickets online through University Tickets (see page 7).

Seating may be accessed only through ground-level west side gates as indicated below. Upper-deck seating and elevator service to seating on the mezzanine level are not available.

Please note: Lower-level seating for guests with ambulatory limitations is available at both Ryan Field and Welsh-Ryan Arena. This seating is monitored by University staff and requires no advance reservations.
Severe Weather Plan Seating
In the event of severe weather, the ceremony may be moved indoors to Welsh-Ryan Arena–McGaw Memorial Hall. Tickets are required for all seating. Candidates may obtain their allotment of two tickets for the indoor ceremony online through University Tickets (see page 7). Remote television viewing of the ceremony will be available at several indoor Evanston campus locations; no tickets are required for these locations.

Seating for Guests with Disabilities
By prior arrangement, guests who are hard of hearing or who arrive in their own wheelchairs may be accompanied by one companion in specially designated seating sections. Closed captioning will appear on a screen in the hard-of-hearing section.

Reserved hard-of-hearing section seating (requiring specially marked tickets) and wheelchair section seating for guests and their companions must be requested by completing the online form found on the Commencement website, www.northwestern.edu/commencement.

Information for Families and Guests, continued

Attire
Comfort is the key. Let the weather be your guide. In June, Chicago-area weather conditions and temperatures can vary greatly. Those who are sensitive to the sun should be prepared with sunscreen and appropriate protective headgear. In the event of light rain, the ceremony will remain outdoors at Ryan Field, and guests and participants are advised to be prepared for the weather.

Photo Locations

Information Booths
Information booths and refreshment stands serving complimentary water and lemonade are conveniently located in the Ryan Field area. (See map on page 12.)

First Aid Stations
The Ryan Field First Aid Station is located at Gate P. If the Severe Weather Plan is in effect, the First Aid Station will be located near Gate 6 in McGaw Memorial Hall. (See map on page 12.)

Stroller Check
A designated place for securing strollers may be found at Gate S. (See map on page 12.)

Ordering Commencement Merchandise
Personalized graduation announcements, custom thank-you notes, and related memorabilia may be ordered at www.northwestern.edu/commencement/students.

University Alma Mater

Hail to Alma Mater!
We will sing thy praise forever;
All thy sons and daughters
Pledge thee victory and honor.
Alma Mater, praise be thine,
May thy name forever shine!
Hail to Purple! Hail to White!
Hail to thee, Northwestern!

Quaecumque sunt vera,
Proba, justa, mera
Omnia haec dona
Praebes nobis bona,
Alma Mater cara,
Benedicta, clara,
Celsa in honore
Nostro et amore!
