

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY INTRODUCES ANOTHER CHILD CARE SOLUTION

Brought to you by sittercity.com

Because Northwestern University knows it can be challenging to balance your work and personal life, faculty, staff and students now have a free subscription to Sittercity.com's comprehensive database of babysitters and nannies – hundreds of thousands of them, as a matter of fact!

As the nation's first and largest parent-sitter matchmaking site, and the inventor of online caregiving, Sittercity.com makes it simple, safe and fast to find local care providers:

SIMPLE

- Sitter profiles are a one-stop source of information with resumes, references, pictures, years of experience, training, feedback from other parents and more.
- Sittercity emails all your posted jobs directly to sitters, so those with matching schedules and credentials may apply.
- Sittercity's interactive Rate Calculator helps you easily determine what to pay.

SAFE

- Sittercity's four-step screening process helps you select trustworthy caregivers.
- Sittercity provides optional and convenient LexisNexis background checks at a discounted rate.
- Sittercity.com is tested and certified every single day to pass the Hacker Safe Security Scan.

FAST

- Begin posting jobs and searching immediately after you register – to find your favorite sitter.
- Your posted jobs are emailed to sitters the very same day you post them.
- Hundreds of thousands of sitters means they rush to compete for YOU.
- Plan ahead and find your favorite sitters, so you'll know who to call on when the need suddenly arises.
