Northwestern University’s employer reimbursement plan is designed for students whose employers offer reimbursement for tuition charges. It allows participants to defer their tuition payments to Northwestern until after the term has been completed. There are no finance or interest charges; the only cost is a nonrefundable application fee.

Eligibility
Participation in the plan is open to students in the Northwestern University School of Professional Studies and in the Kellogg School of Management’s part-time MBA program. Eligibility is contingent upon official notification from the student’s employer verifying that the student is eligible for tuition reimbursement.

Applying
To apply for the plan, complete Part I of the application and have your employer complete Part II. Return the completed application with the application fee to the Office of Student Accounts. See below for fee and deadline information.

Fee
The application fee is nonrefundable. Make checks payable to Northwestern University.

Deadlines
Eligible participants must apply by the following dates:

- Fall 2014: July 1, 2014
- Winter 2015: November 3, 2014
- Spring 2015: February 2, 2015
- Summer 2015: May 1, 2015

Registration
When you register for classes, you will be required to pay all charges not covered by the plan. For example, if your employer is covering 75 percent of your tuition, you will be required to pay the remaining 25 percent plus any lab fees when you register.

First-time students: Please submit a copy of your completed application when you register. (The original should already have been sent to the Office of Student Accounts.)

Payments
You are required to pay the deferred portion of your bill whether or not you have completed the course work or have been reimbursed by your employer. You must pay no later than the following dates:

- Fall 2014: January 9, 2015
- Winter 2015: April 9, 2015
- Spring 2015: July 9, 2015
- Summer 2015: September 9, 2015

All payments must be made by check and submitted directly to the Office of Student Accounts. Credit card payments are not accepted. Please retain your cancelled check as proof of payment.

In the event that you do not make the payment at the required time, the following sanctions will apply:

- The credit will be removed from your student account.
- A late payment penalty (based on the program in which you are enrolled) will be added to your account.
- A hold will be placed on future registrations.
- You will be ineligible for the plan in the future.
- You will be liable for collection, court, and legal costs.

Audits
Northwestern University reserves the right to conduct random audits, which involve contacting your employer about your employment status.

Billing
Upon acceptance of your application and completion of your registration, a credit will be placed on your account reflecting the expected payment. This will prevent late charges from accumulating on your account and allow you to register for the next term during the early registration period.

Returned Payments
A $35 fee will be charged to your account for each payment returned by the bank for any reason. A late fee also may be charged, and you will be disqualified from the program.

Withdrawals
If you drop a class or withdraw from the University, all payments are due immediately. The normal University refund policy would then apply. For more information, click on “Chicago Handbook” (pages 7, 12, and 14) under “Student Financial Regulations Handbook” (right-hand column) at www.northwestern.edu/sfs.
