

Study Abroad Office Summer Scholarship Application

The Study Abroad Office at Northwestern University will offer a limited number of need-based scholarships to eligible Northwestern students applying to study abroad on the following programs for the summer of 2012:

- Barcelona Summer Program
- Bonn Renewable Energy Program
- Nanotechnology Program in Munich

These scholarships, ranging from $1,000 to $3,000, will be awarded based on financial need. They are meant to help defray the costs of international study and to assist students for whom a small amount of aid may mean the difference between studying abroad and staying home.

The Study Abroad Office will notify students of their award status by mid March. Notification will be sent to the Office of Undergraduate Financial Aid, and awards will be credited directly to the recipient's student account in early May.
