

STUDY ABROAD RELEASE OF FUNDS

If the amount of your financial aid is greater than the amount billed to you by Northwestern, you may be eligible for a financial aid refund to help cover your other study abroad costs, such as housing, transportation, or living expenses overseas. Aid refunds may typically be requested through CAESAR at the beginning of the regular Northwestern quarter. If you need to access your aid refund sooner (e.g., if your program begins earlier than the NU quarter), you may request an early release of funds.

Because the Study Abroad Release of Funds form allows you to request your financial aid refund earlier than the normal timeline, you are technically considered to be "borrowing" your aid from the University in the interim, which is why the form refers to a Short-Term Loan. This is not a student loan, and no loan interest or fees will be charged for this early advance of funds. However, if you withdraw from your study abroad program after receiving your release of funds, you will be required to repay the full amount to the University within 60 days.

To request your financial aid refund, you must complete all of your financial aid and/or loan requirements (refer to your CAESAR To Do List); accept or decline your financial aid and/or loans on CAESAR; resolve all registration holds; and be registered for your study abroad quarter.

Refund Amount:

- Exact Amount: You are encouraged to request only the amount you will need to cover your immediate up-front costs, rather than receiving the full amount early; this may help you to budget your funds over the course of your term abroad. Contact the financial aid office for an estimate of your total aid refund. If less than the requested amount is available, the full (lesser) amount of your available funds will be released to you. Only one early release of funds can be processed per student; you may request your remaining funds through CAESAR at the start of the NU quarter.
- Maximum Amount: If you select this option, the total amount of your available aid refund for the quarter will be calculated for you after your NU invoice has been issued, and the full amount will be released to you.

Delivery of Funds:

- Direct Deposit (processing time: 1-2 business days)
Direct deposit for financial aid is different from work-study/payroll and must be set up separately:
CAESAR > My Account > Set Up Direct Deposit
- Permanent Address: (processing time: 7-10 business days)
A check payable to you will be mailed to your permanent address. Your permanent address in CAESAR must match the address you indicate on the Release of Funds form. Lost checks cannot be reissued for 30 days.
- Power of Attorney (processing time: 7-10 business days)
A check, co-payable to your Study Abroad Power of Attorney (form completed separately), will be mailed to the address indicated on that form. This option is only available if you will be unable to access your own funds directly (e.g., already abroad with no access to domestic bank account).

If you will be abroad for more than one quarter, you must complete a separate Release of Funds form for each quarter.

Your physical (pen-to-paper) signature is required. Typed or electronically drawn "signatures" or signature images cannot be accepted. Return your completed form(s) to Krista Bethel in Undergraduate Financial Aid via scan/email, mail, fax, or in person. Faxed or scanned copies must be high-resolution and fully legible. Photographs of completed forms cannot be accepted.

Funds will be released no earlier than the following dates:

- Fall: August 15th
- Winter: December 29th
- Spring: March 20th
- Summer: June 15th
