

CAN YOU COMMIT 7 hours THIS QUARTER TO YOUR ACADEMIC WELL-BEING?

Join the UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM FOR ADVANCING LEARNING – UPAL!

UPAL gives you the inside scoop on academic strategies that work at Northwestern. You meet weekly in a small group, with peer mentors, in a relaxed, supportive, and upbeat setting. Topics include:

- Organizing your time and managing procrastination in a fast-paced quarter
- Smart study strategies for a rigorous college curriculum
- Responding to stress and recovering from setbacks
- Interacting with faculty and accessing resources

JUST AN HOUR A WEEK FOR 7 WEEKS!

“If it’s in your physical, emotional, and mental capacity, I one-hundred-percent encourage you to join UPAL to learn more about yourself—and essentially, how to college!”

Angela Zhang,
class of 2025

“UPAL is definitely the place to feel a sense of community with others going through similar struggles as you.”

Monica Young,
class of 2027

“Definitely join UPAL! It’s really helpful, all of the people are nice and welcoming, and it feels like a community.”

Angel Ortiz, class of 2027

For registration information go to bit.ly/asla-upal.

Spring 2025 registration closes Thursday, April 10th.