In this course, we introduce children 5 to 8 years old to dinghy sailing. The course is designed to help young children feel at ease on the water and be comfortable in boats. The emphasis is on the sights, sounds, and feel of sailing. Since the objective of the course is to get the students to feel comfortable sailing, the class will not sail on days with threatening weather, such as rain or high winds. Instead, the class will partake in land activities to further their nautical knowledge.

Gillian Anderson (X-Files, NT Live: A Streetcar Named Desire) and Lily James (Mamma Mia! Here We Go Again) lead in All About Eve, broadcast live to cinemas from the West End in London.

All About Eve tells the story of Margo Channing. Legend. True star of the theatre. The spotlight is hers, always has been. But now there's Eve. Her biggest fan. Young, beautiful Eve. The golden girl, the girl next door. But you know all about Eve...don't you...?

Lifting the curtain on a world of jealousy and ambition, this new production, from one of the world's most innovative theatre directors, Ivo van Hove (Network, NT Live: A View from the Bridge), asks why our fascination with celebrity, youth and identity never seems to get old.

Helen Mirren reprises her Academy Award®-winning role as Queen Elizabeth II in encore screenings of the original West End production of The Audience. Captured live from London's West End in 2013, the original broadcast returns to international cinemas to mark National Theatre Live's 10th birthday.

For sixty years, Queen Elizabeth II has met with each of her twelve Prime Ministers in a private weekly meeting. This meeting is known as The Audience. No one knows what they discuss, not even their spouses. From the old warrior Winston Churchill, to the Iron Lady Margaret Thatcher, Blair right up to today's meetings with the current incumbent David Cameron, the Queen advises her Prime Ministers on all matters both public and personal. Through these private audiences, we see glimpses of the woman behind the crown and witness the moments that shaped a monarch.

Now seen by over 800,000 people worldwide, the original broadcast returns to international cinemas to mark National Theatre Live's 10th birthday. As a country arms itself for war, a family tears itself apart. Forced to avenge his father's death but paralyzed by the task ahead, Hamlet rages against the impossibility of his predicament, threatening both his sanity and the security of the state.

At the age of 13, young Hans Christian Andersen is the first commoner ever chosen by the King of Denmark to study at the Royal Academy. But faced with the task of leaving his provincial family behind, he is dreading the experience. Upon arrival in Copenhagen he is quickly swept away in a dazzling world of new characters, challenges, and friends that ignite his inspiration for some of the world's most famous stories such as "The Little Mermaid," "The Ugly Duckling," "The Emperor's New Clothes" and more.

Directed by Rives Collins and based on the life and imagination of Hans Christian Andersen, this brand new musical, which features a score by legendary Broadway composer Frank Loesser and an original libretto by Timothy Allen McDonald, follows the inspiring coming of age journey of a young penniless storyteller who would ultimately become one of the most celebrated writers of all time.

Just as his stories have inspired countless generations, young and old alike, this enchanting summer production is recommended for all ages.

Art Exhibits

Caravans of Gold, Fragments in Time: Art, Culture and Exchange across Medieval Sahara Africa

Sat, 1/26 to Sun, 7/21, free

Exhibition tours Tues, 6/4, 6/11, 6/18, 12:00-12:45 PM,

Sun, 6/2, 6/9, 3:00-3:45 PM, free, No RSVP Required

Block Museum of Art, Mary and Leigh, 40 Arts Circle Drive, Evanston

Contact: Block Museum of Art, 847-491-4000, block-museum@northwestern.edu

Caravans of Gold, Fragments in Time challenges the widely held bias of a timeless Africa that is cut off from the dynamics of world history. This will be the first major exhibition to take stock of the material culture of early trans-Saharan trade and to offer strong evidence of the central but little-recognized role Africa played in medieval history. Among the diverse materials on view in the exhibition will be sculptures, jewelry, household and luxury objects, manuscripts, and architectural remnants. What unites these materials is their connections to routes of exchange across the Sahara Desert during the medieval period (eighth through 16th centuries).

Caravans of Gold, Fragments in Time addresses the shared history of West Africa, the Middle East, North Africa and Europe during the critical epoch of the eighth through 16th centuries, when West African gold fueled a global economy and was the impetus for the movement of things, people and ideas across the Sahara Desert to Europe, the Middle East and beyond. Because of the scarcity of surviving intact works from before the 16th century, the early history and material culture of Africa have rarely been the focus of major exhibitions.

More than 100 assembled artworks and archeological fragments will help audiences discover the far-reaching impact of historic trans-Saharan exchange and the overlooked role of West Africa at the forefront of these developments. Using objects as points of entry and inquiry, Caravans of Gold, Fragments in Time will interweave the art history, archaeology, history and comparative literature of trans-Saharan trade, situating it within a broad geographical and historical context.

Contact: R. J. Garrick, 312-503-5700,
r-garrick@northwestern.edu

MK Czerwiec is the artist-in-residence at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine. She is a nurse who uses drawing and comics to reflect on the complexities of illness and caregiving.

In nursing school Czerwiec started making art, despite the fact that she had no art education. Later, in the 1990s at the height of the AIDS crisis, she began working in a dedicated HIV/AIDS care hospital unit. Making art became her essential coping tool. Since then, her art has evolved in response to her experiences, moving from narrative paintings to comics and medical graphics that are her current focus.

The 5 pieces in this exhibit reflect that evolution, culminating with pages from Czerwiec's graphic memoir, Taking Turns in which her former patient helps her to explore the meaning in some of the recurring images and gestures found in her art: stars, seasons, nature, and reaching.

Art Discussion

Visiting Artist Talk: Anna Boghiguan

Sat, 6/8, 1:00-2:00 PM, free

Kresge Hall, Room 1515, 1880 Campus Drive, Evanston, IL 60208

Contact: Matthew Martin, 847-491-7346, matthew.martin1@northwestern.edu

Anna Boghiguan's (b. 1946, Cairo) raw and expressionistic works combine painting, drawing, writing, collage, and sculpture to contemplate the past and present through intersections of economics, philosophy, literature, and myth. Since the 1970s, Boghiguan has travelled continuously, and her work has charted her impressions and observations of various societies, as well as her experiences of non-belonging as a foreigner and outsider. In Boghiguan's work, the palimpsest of memory takes physical form as a rough accumulation that thickens the surface of her paintings with encaustic, pigment, steel, collage and non-specific debris.

(Colin Higgins, 1980, USA, DCP, 109 min.)

9 to 5 remains a classic film for many reasons: its top-tier cast, catchy theme, and the powerful way it blends comedy with a rallying cry for working women. Jane Fonda, Lily Tomlin, and Dolly Parton's characters fight against the patriarchy to enact progressive ideas--their platform is for equal pay for equal work, ending discriminatory hiring and office sexual harassment, and instituting social programs including workplace child-care. Nearly forty years later, these issues are still being grappled with as a new battle for equal rights taken on by the most diverse Congress ever elected.

Waiting for Happiness (2002)

(Abderrahmane Sissako, 2002,
Mauritania/France, 35mm, 96 min.)

Set in a Mauritanian coastal town at the edge of the Sahara Desert, Waiting for Happiness elliptically explores the gateways between Africa and Europe, tradition and modernity, childhood and adulthood.

The cast of characters radiates around Abdallah, a 17-year-old intellectual distanced from the language and culture of his hometown; while he waits to emigrate to France, he struggles to communicate with the inhabitants and migrants around him. Abderrahmane Sissako weaves together disparate, yet invariably intoxicating sights and sounds, teasing out the systems of exchange and translation that exist even when life seems at a standstill.

Piano and Organ

The Music Academy Piano Division offers pre-piano class, which serves as an introduction to more formal piano instruction: keyboard instruction in two tracks for students ages 6 to 18, and instruction for adults. Pre-piano serves as an introduction to more formal piano instruction. Keyboard instruction for children begins with pre-staff music and expands to landmark-based intervallic reading. After the first year of study, most children participate in the Illinois State Music Teacher's Association curriculum assessment, where they demonstrate skills and receive certificates and pins for participation.

Strings

The String Division offers private lessons in violin, viola, and cello, with goals of both providing musical instruction and instilling a love of music and of learning music. The division believes that all children can learn to their potential when placed in an environment that includes clear instruction, an involved parent, and regular opportunities to listen to and perform.

Voice (adults)

Adult voice classes concentrate on basic vocal technique including registers, breathing, range, and diction. Unique teaching methods and small class size (4 to 5 students) produce good results after a short period of time. A full program of events has kicked off for our new One Book One Northwestern selection, The Handmaid's Tale. For more information about the One Book One Northwestern program, please contact Nancy Cunniff at onebook@northwestern.edu or 847-467-2294.

Hidden Figures* by Margot Lee Shetterly Selected for One Book Program 2019-2020

"Hidden Figures," the true story of three pathbreaking black women scientists whose work enabled NASA's first manned mission to orbit the Earth, is the One Book One Northwestern all-campus read for Northwestern University's 2019-20 academic year. A No. 1 New York Times bestseller and the basis for an Academy Award-nominated blockbuster movie, "Hidden Figures: The American Dream and the Untold Story of the Black Women Mathematicians Who Helped Win the Space Race," by Margot Lee Shetterly, celebrates previously unsung heroes Katherine Johnson, Dorothy Vaughan and Mary Jackson, who overcame sexism and racism in 1960s America to make history and pave the way for generations of scientists. Shetterly will give a keynote address on the Evanston and Chicago campuses on Oct. 17, 2019.

One Book One Northwestern is a community-wide reading program hosted by the Office of the President. It aims to engage the campus in a common conversation centered on a carefully chosen, thought-provoking book. It began in 2005 for students in the Weinberg College of Arts and Sciences and has since evolved into a community-wide program involving students, faculty and staff from all majors and departments.

Everyone is encouraged to read the One Book selection. The Office of the President sends a free copy to incoming first-year and transfer students the summer before they arrive on campus.

Throughout the year, events like lectures, films, and discussion groups provide an opportunity for individuals to gather and talk about the issues presented in the book. Many of these events are open to the public and the entire community is invited to participate. Visit the Participate section to learn how you can get involved.

Margot is a Hampton, Virginia native, University of Virginia graduate, an entrepreneur, and an intrepid traveler who spent 11 years living in Mexico. She currently lives in Charlottesville, VA.

Speakers and Presentations

What happens in our brain when we have an Aha! moment? Insights on how to have more insights.

Carola Salvi (Feinberg School of Medicine, Northwestern)

Mon, 6/3, 12:00-1:00 PM, free

Shirley Ryan Ability Lab, 10th floor Conference A-B, 355 E. Erie, Chicago

Contact: Andrea Domenighetti, andrea.domenighetti@northwestern.edu

Creativity is essential for advances in interpersonal, social, cultural, and even scientific knowledge. We often imagine ideas as a lightbulb illuminating above our heads, or perhaps most iconic, as Archimedes' exclamation "Eureka!" revealing feelings of pleasure, relief, and an intuitive sense of success. Insightful ideas are indeed a powerful expression of creative problem solving and a driving force for discoveries in every field of human endeavor. The advantage of solving problems via insight is that they are more accurate, relying on a unique pattern of neural activity when compared with problems solved by deliberate analysis (i.e., trial-and-error). Dr. Salvi's latest studies on these two distinct neural circuits tug at the proverbial lightbulb's pull cord, illuminating one of the most central and elusive abilities inside the "black box" of the human mind: the generation of an idea.

Psychology Colloquium: Personality and Development, Manifestation and Resolution of Alcohol Use Disorders

Kenneth Sher (University of Missouri)

Mon, 6/3, 1:00-2:30 PM, free

Norris University Center, 202 Northwestern Room, 1999 Campus Drive, Evanston

Contact: Tomeka Bolar, 847-491-4994, t-white1@northwestern.edu

The talk will discuss the multifaceted-roles of personality in risk for alcohol-related problems and its role in desistance processes that lead to "natural recovery." Also, I will consider the notion of "drunk personality" and its potential clinical applications.

ID Wars: Struggling for Citizenship in Cote d'Ivoire

Richard Banegas (Sciences Po, Paris, France)

Wed, 6/5, 12:00-1:00 PM, free

620 Library Place, Room 106, Evanston

Contact: Program of African Studies, 847-491-7323,

african-studies@northwestern.edu

Banegas' previous key research concentrated on democratization processes in Benin and Uganda and his current projects explore the issues of citizenship, violence and mobilization of the youth in West Africa, with a special focus on the Ivory Coast. His interests also include the topics of war, crisis resolution and post-conflict reconstruction.

IPR@50 Conference: The Next 50 Years of Policy Research

Thurs, 6/6, 1:00 to Fri, 6/7, 5:30 PM, free, must register here

Hardin Hall, Rebecca Crown Center, 633 Clark St., Evanston

Contact Ellen Dunleavy, 847-491-3395, ipr@northwestern.edu

Since it was founded in the 1968–69 academic year with a grant from the Ford Foundation, the Institute for Policy Research (IPR) at Northwestern University has focused on producing the highest quality social science research to better inform policy. IPR@50 is a year-long celebration that will involve public lectures by IPR faculty, former PhD students, and others, and will culminate in a two-day conference on June 6–7, 2019. IPR's 50th anniversary offers a unique moment to take stock of what we know about these key areas, to look at how IPR research has contributed to that knowledge base, and to chart a course for studying it in the years to come.

NUvention: Web + Media Final Pitch Event

Tues, 6/11, 2:00-5:00 PM, free

McCormick Foundation Center, MFC Forum, 1870 Campus Drive, Evanston

Contact: Ryan Brownlow, 847-467-3753, ryan.brownlow@northwestern.edu

After a quarter of hard work and dedication, the teams of NUvention: Web + Media will pitch their businesses to a group of advisory board members, faculty, and guests. Over the course of the quarter, the teams have defined their concept through market research, customer development, and prototyping. Their final presentations are a culmination of their efforts over the quarter, stimulating the real-world experience of pitching a company to potential investors. This provides a starting point for students that wish to launch their companies post-class.
