Mussetter-Struble Theater, 1949 Campus Drive, Evanston

In modern-day New York, Sarah is moving into an apartment with her female partner Alix, but she becomes increasingly distracted when sorting through a box left to her by her Aunt Betty. Within Betty's box is research into the ballads passed down from their ancestors—specifically the stories of two women on the verge of motherhood who carried these songs from Scotland to Ireland and onto America. For Sarah, the rediscovery of these songs and the stories embedded within them brings to the surface her own desire to have a family. As the ghosts of Sarah's ancestors take over the apartment, she becomes obsessed with Betty's research and faces a life-changing decision that only she can make.

Engulfed by an escalating identity crisis as his many and various relationships compete for his attention, Garry's few remaining days at home are a chaotic whirlwind of love, sex, panic and soul-searching. Captured live from The Old Vic in London, Present Laughter is a giddy and surprisingly modern reflection on fame, desire and loneliness.

Sun, 3/1: 3:00 – 5:30 PM; $8 - $18

Cahn Auditorium, 600 Emerson Street, Evanston

Mistaken identities, disguises, and romantic escapades abound in Johann Strauss's high-spirited operetta. Everyone is going to Prince Orlofsky's ball, but they don't want their nearest and dearest to know. Gabriel von Eisenstein evades jail for a night to attend; his wife follows him, disguised as a countess, to find out whether he will misbehave. Adele, their maid, claims to be visiting her aunt, but she, too, goes to the ball, disguised as an actress. Frivolity, festivities, and a practical joke gone awry make for a sparkling musical cocktail!

Jazz Small Ensembles: Swing, Not Swung – Student Originals

Mon, 3/2, 7:30 – 9:30 PM, $4 student, $6 public

Ryan Center for the Musical Arts, McClintock Choral and Recital Room, 70 Arts Circle, Evanston

Throughout the history of jazz, the most frequently asked question has been "What's next?" This concert provides an answer in the form of all-new compositions by jazz students. Swing in the present and preview the future of jazz.

Ryan Center for the Musical Arts, Ryan Opera Theater, 70 Arts Circle, Evanston

For its second winter concert, the Contemporary Music Ensemble performs two chamber works. Completed in 1906, Arnold Schoenberg's Chamber Symphony No. 1 in E Major represented a major step in his development as a composer, bridging the gap between the traditional and the modern. Oscar Bettison's fantastical 2012 chamber concerto Livre des Sauvages was inspired by a 19th-century book of pictographs of unknown origin; its three movements depict mysterious beasts, alchemy, ships laden with treasure, and other arcana.

Bienen Strings Ensemble

Sat, 3/7, 3:00 – 5:00 PM, $5 student, $8 public

Pick-Staiger Concert Hall, 50 Arts Circle Drive, Evanston

University Chorale

Sat, 3/7: 6:00 – 8:00 PM, free

Alice Millar Chapel, 1870 Sheridan Road, Evanston

The music of Herbert Howells continues to grow in stature as we view the 20th century from an ever-increasing distance. His extraordinary harmonic language and soaring, twisting melodic lines seem to imply there is something yet to come—an unresolved emotion. Performing his Te Deum Collegium Regale and the anthem "Thee Will I Love," University Chorale explores his music for choir and organ in its historical context alongside works by Ralph Vaughan Williams and Gerald Finzi. Nationally recognized organ virtuoso Scott Dettra joins the ensemble for this look at British sacred music.

Northwestern Camerata

Art Exhibitions

Terence Gower: Ciudad Moderna

Tues, 1/21 to Sun, 4/19, free

This exhibition examines the twisting and tenuous road Northwestern traveled on its way to educating college-age women in an era when the concept was still controversial, the implementation virtually untested, and the long-term results unpredictable. Using documents, maps, photographs, and artifacts from the University Archives, the exhibit begins by tracing the unique elements in Evanston’s and Northwestern’s history that led, fourteen years from the University’s founding, to the admission of women. The focus then shifts to the dilemmas faced by University administration about exactly how to incorporate women into the college—with particular worries about housing and supervising them; the unexpected events that changed the course of coeducation at Northwestern; and the ways that women students themselves interpreted their roles as Northwestern “co-eds.”

Modernisms: Iranian, Turkish, and Indian Highlights from NYU's Abby Weed Grey Collection

Tues, 1/21 to Sun, 4/5, free

Tues, Sat, Sun 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM; Weds, Thurs, Fri, 10:00 AM – 8:00 PM

Modernisms: Iranian, Turkish, and Indian Highlights from NYU's Abby Weed Grey Collection surveys art from three nations where unique and vibrant forms of modernism sprang forth in the 1960s and 1970s. Challenging histories of artistic modernism that too often begin and end in the West, "Modernisms" explores an under-recognized flowering of innovation and risk-taking in art beyond Europe and North America.

Influenced by local traditions, cultural exchange and the sights and sounds of modern life, artists in Iran, Turkey and India forged distinctive new modes of expression. From Iranian and Turkish artists who explored calligraphy and ornamentation through avant-garde abstraction, to Indian painters whose expressive canvases drew upon Hindu iconography, the 114 works in Modernisms reflect the lively dialogue between East and West, past and present. These works testify to both the continuity of culture and the disruption of modernity.

Art Discussions

This unparalleled historical resource was amassed by Abby Weed Grey (1902-1983), a self-described "dyed-in-the-wool Midwesterner" from St. Paul, Minnesota. Join Lynn Gumpert, Director of the Grey Art Gallery at NYU and Lisa Corrin, Director of the Block Museum of Art, for a conversation on this intrepid woman collector and the way that her legacy might inform global directions for contemporary collectors.

Modernisms - Spotlight Gallery Talk - Maryam Athari

Fri, 3/13 12:00 PM, free

For more than 70 years, Northwestern University's Music Academy in Evanston has provided music instruction to children and adult students from surrounding communities and the greater Chicago and Northwest Indiana area.

Most Academy instructors also teach in the Henry and Leigh Bienen School of Music and hold masters and doctoral degrees in music teaching and performance. Other Courses

(offered throughout the school year)

Piano and Organ

The Music Academy Piano Division offers pre-piano class, which serves as an introduction to more formal piano instruction: keyboard instruction in two tracks for students ages 6 to 18, and instruction for adults. Pre-piano serves as an introduction to more formal piano instruction. Keyboard instruction for children begins with pre-staff music and expands to landmark-based intervallic reading. After the first year of study, most children participate in the Illinois State Music Teacher's Association curriculum assessment, where they demonstrate skills and receive certificates and pins for participation.

Strings

The String Division offers private lessons in violin, viola, and cello, with goals of both providing musical instruction and instilling a love of music and of learning music. The division believes that all children can learn to their potential when placed in an environment that includes clear instruction, an involved parent, and regular opportunities to listen to and perform.

Voice (adults)

Adult voice classes concentrate on basic vocal technique including registers, breathing, range, and diction. Unique teaching methods and small class size (4 to 5 students) produce good results after a short period of time. The class is recommended not only for people interested in singing, but also for adults who would like to improve their speaking voice. Private voice lessons also available
