

Notice of Travel Restriction Recommendations from Northwestern University

On Wednesday, March 3, 2020 the University issued a statement from President Morton Schapiro indicating that all University-sponsored travel involving undergraduate and graduate/professional school students was cancelled.

If you need documentation to support any cancelled travel arrangements, please print this form of Northwestern Health Service's recommendation.

Best,

Robert D. Palinkas, MD

Executive Director, Northwestern University Health Service