

If you need help with completing the I-9 form, contact askHR at askHR@northwestern.edu or call 847-491-4700.

This document explains how to complete an I-9 Section 3 Rehire (Supplement B Rehire) for US citizens and permanent residents who has a terminated I-9 record.

Determine if Section 3 Rehire is Appropriate
1.	Go to the log in page for the I-9 Service Center: https://northwestern.i9servicecenter.com/
2.	You will need to log in on the left under Existing Accounts. Do not log in under New Employees.
3.	Log in using the credentials you received from the I-9 Service Center after you completed your I-9 training and your security request form was submitted. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. The username and password are specific to this website. The password is not your NetID password. b. If you need your password reset, email askHR@northwestern.edu.
4.	Click on the Employees menu on the left and click on Employee Search submenu.

5. Search for the employee by name and birthdate.
 - a. Type in the first 3 letters of the Last Name, the first 3 letters of the First Name, and the Date of Birth.
 - b. Some I-9s are not connected to myHR employee ID numbers, so searching by Employee ID often doesn't work.
 - c. Check the Include Terminated Employees checkbox.
 - d. Click Search.

6. Review the results to determine next steps.
 - a. If the employee has a search result that does not have (term) in red next to it and it has a Completed status, then the person has a current active I-9 and there is no action required. (If you believe that the person's I-9 should have been terminated, email askHR@northwestern.edu.)

Frag. ID	Employee	Company	DOB	DOH	Employee ID	WAE	Status / Elig. / I-9 DOB
26712547	TESTING, Testing	Location Not Found		10/20/2022			(27369284) Completed / USC / (01/01/1970)

- b. If the person only has a terminated I-9 and the person is a foreign national (not US citizen or permanent resident), then the person will need to complete a new I-9 Section 1 and Section 2.
- c. A person is considered a seasonal employee if they are returning to the same job (same job code) and the same department (same department ID) with a gap in employment that is less than 12 months. If someone is a seasonal employee and have a terminated I-9 record with (term) next to their name, you can submit the hire paperwork to HR Operations. Put a comment in the submission to note it is a seasonal employee and you are requesting that HR Operations un-terminate the I-9 record. Only US citizen and permanent resident I-9s can be un-terminated.
- d. A person has a terminated I-9 but is not a seasonal employee. Open the terminated I-9 and review Section 2. If Section 2 was completed more than 3 years ago or any of the documents that were used on the original I-9 have expired, then the person will need to complete a new I-9 Section 1 and Section 2.
- e. If the old I-9 is terminated and it was completed as a US citizen or permanent resident and Section 2 was completed in the last 3 years and the documents have not yet expired, then you can complete the Section 3 Rehire process described in this job aid.

Frag. ID	Employee	Company	DOB	DOH	Employee ID	WAE	Status / Elig. / I-9 DOB
26594608	TEST, Test (term)	Location Not Found	1/2/1999	9/21/2022			(27240114) Completed / USC / (01/02/1999)

Complete Section 3 Rehire
1.	The employee does not need to show documents and does not need to meet with you in person. The Section 3 rehire process is completed by an authorized user in the I-9 Service Center.
2.	Find the employee record in the Employee Rehire Search. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> On the left, click the Employees menu. Click on the Employee Rehire Search submenu.
3.	Search for the employee by Name and Date of Birth. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> If you saw the terminated I-9 in Employee Search and it's less than 3 years old, but it doesn't come up in Employee Rehire Search, then the I-9 is not eligible for Section 3 rehire and the employee must complete a new I-9 Section 1 and Section 2.
4.	Click on the name in the search results to open the record. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> If the person's I-9 shows up in the search results, but the name is in black and is not a blue clickable hyperlink, then you don't have security access to the department that was used when the person originally completed the I-9. In that case, email askHR@northwestern.edu with the person's name, employee ID number, and the rehire date (the start date of the new job) and askHR will complete the I-9 Section 3 Rehire process for you.
5.	When the I-9 opens, review the old completed I-9 form. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Confirm that it is the right person and that the person completed the form as a US citizen or permanent resident. Confirm that the I-9 Section 2 documents haven't expired yet and the Section 2 signature is within the last 3 years.

6. If the person is eligible for the Section 3 rehire, scroll down and click the Do Rehire button at the bottom of the page.
