Cook County Commission on Human Rights

Cook County Minimum Wage Ordinance

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES

You are covered by the Cook County Minimum Wage Ordinance (MWO) if:

- You have worked for an employer in Cook County for at least 2 hours in any 2-week period, and
- Your employer has four or more employees (or you are a domestic worker), and
- Your employer (i) maintains a business facility in Cook County or (ii) is issued a business license by Cook County.
- Teenagers (under the age of 18) are not entitled to the minimum wage. Instead, they must be paid the State’s minimum wage for workers under 18.

If you believe your employer has underpaid you or violated the Ordinance in other ways, you can file a complaint with the Cook County Commission on Human Rights:

- Begin the Complaint process by first contacting a Human Rights Investigator for an intake interview.
- Investigators for the Commission can be reached Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. by telephone or email.
- Due to the volume of intake interviews, initial consultations are limited to 30 minutes. Please consider reviewing and sending the Commission a Complaint Intake Worksheet that will be reviewed by the investigators to evaluate and determine the strength of your claim.
- More information and forms for filing a Minimum Wage complaint are available at www.cookcountyil.gov/MWO.

Visit www.cookcountyil.gov/MWO for more information.
COOK COUNTY EARNED SICK LEAVE ORDINANCE
NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES • EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2017

In most cases, you are covered by the Cook County Earned Sick Leave Ordinance if:
- You have worked for your employer in Cook County for at least 2 hours in any two-week period, and
- Your employer has a place of business in Cook County.

You are entitled to:
- Earn one hour of earned sick leave for every 40 hours worked for your employer in Cook County;
- You may use earned sick leave when you or a family member are ill, receiving medical care, or the victim of domestic violence or stalking, or a public health emergency closes work, school or daycare;
- You must be paid for earned sick leave at your usual rate of pay, no later than the next payroll period;
- Maximum accrual and use of earned sick leave generally is 40 hours per year;
- If you do not use all the earned sick leave you earn in a given year, generally you are entitled to carry over half of those unused hours to use in the following year (up to a maximum carryover of 20 hours);
- And you may be entitled to additional benefits under the Ordinance if your employer is covered by the federal Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and you are eligible for FMLA leave.

Your employer is prohibited from:
- Retaliating against you for exercising Ordinance rights (e.g., using earned sick leave, filing a claim); or
- Requiring you to search for or find a replacement to cover your work hours while you are on leave.

Your employer is allowed to:
- Impose written rules for: the minimum increments of time (4 hours or less) in which earned sick leave can be used; the type and timing of notice required for reasonably foreseeable absences; the minimum duration of employment before initial use of earned sick leave (not to exceed 180 days).
- Adopt equivalent alternative practices to meet its Ordinance obligations (e.g., grant estimated earned sick leave for the year up front) (see Part 600 of the Commission’s Earned Sick Leave Rules).

If you believe your employer may have violated this Ordinance:
- The Commission encourages (but does not require) you to discuss your concerns with your employer. Employers may use different terminology to describe employee benefits or may have adopted an approved alternative practice to comply with the Ordinance. The Commission’s website and Earned Sick Leave Rules are resources for helping you and your employer understand what the Ordinance requires.
- If you cannot talk to your employer because of fear of retaliation or you remain unsatisfied with your employer’s explanation of your benefits, contact the Commission for assistance.
- If you wish to file a complaint with the Commission because your employer has violated the Ordinance, you must generally do so within 3 years of the violation. Complaints can also be filed directly in the Circuit Court of Cook County without filing at the Commission first.
- The Commission is available to assist (or receive complaints), Monday – Friday (excluding County holidays) from 9 a.m. – 4 p.m., or by appointment outside of these hours. You may contact the Commission by email, telephone or in person.
