Employer Size:
- Count the employer's total number of all employees worldwide. For franchises, count all employees in the franchise network.

Medical Benefits - Small Employers:
- To pay the lower hourly rate, a small employer's payments must be for a silver-level or higher medical benefits program as defined by the federal Affordable Care Act.

- A small employer cannot pay the lower rate if the employee declines or is not eligible for medical benefits.

Paid Sick & Safe Time

Employers must provide employees with paid leave to care for themselves or a family member.

Fair Chance Employment

Limits Use of Conviction and Arrest Records

Prohibited:
- Job ads that exclude applicants with conviction or arrest records
- Job applications with questions about conviction or arrest records, unless the employer has already screened the applicant for minimum qualifications
- Job denial (or other adverse employment actions) based solely on an arrest record

- Some exceptions apply, including jobs with unsupervised access to children under 16, people with developmental disabilities, or vulnerable adults.

Employers are required to:
- Delay criminal background checks until after screening applicants for minimum qualifications
- Follow procedures before taking an adverse action based solely on a criminal background check:
  - Provide an opportunity to explain or correct the criminal background check information
  - Hold the position open for at least two business days
  - Have a legitimate business reason that employing the person will harm the business or impact the employee's ability to perform the job

Wage Theft

Provides Protections Against Wage Theft

Employers must pay all compensation owed on a regular pay day and give employees written information about their job and pay.

Written Information Must Include:
- Employer's name and contact information
- Employee's rate of pay, eligibility to earn overtime, pay basis (hour, shift, day, week, commission), and regular pay day
- Explanation of employer's tip policy
- Itemized statement of pay information on pay day

Examples of Pay Requirements:
- Pay minimum wage
- Pay overtime
- Pay for rest breaks
- Pay amount promised
- Pay for work off the clock
- Pay tips
- Pay service charges (unless listed on receipt or menu as not payable to the employee(s) serving the customer)
- Reimburse employer expenses
- No misclassification of employees

Commuter Benefits

Employers with 20 or more employees must offer employees, who work an average of ten hours or more per week, the ability to deduct transit or vanpool expenses from an employee’s taxable wages up to the maximum level allowed by federal tax law. To meet this requirement, employers may instead provide a transit pass that is fully or partially subsidized. Employers must offer this benefit within 60 calendar days of the employee's start date.
