

About MSA

Multicultural Student Affairs (MSA) is one of three departments within Campus Inclusion and Community (CIC) at Northwestern University. Our mission is to enrich the cultural experience of Northwestern through leadership and education programming; providing opportunities for community engagement and identity expression; and assisting students in navigating the University.

About the Graduate Assistant Position

Graduate Assistants (GA) in MSA will gain valuable skills that can be transferred to any area within higher education and beyond. Each GA will be supervised by one of our six full-time staff members, who each serve as a content expert for one of the following student communities: African-American/Black; Asian, Pacific Islander, and Desi American (APIDA); Latino/a/x; Native American/Indigenous; Middle Eastern and North African (MENA-Arab); and Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer. In addition to working with a specific student community, the GA is also given the opportunity to work across communities through collaborations both within and outside of CIC that address the needs of the MENA/Arab student body while remaining in scope of MSA's goals and learning outcomes.

The term for appointment for MSA GA's will be from September 4, 2024 – June 20, 2025. By applying for this position, you are agreeing to this start date. The graduate assistantship begins with a two-day mandatory training that will take place September 4 - 5, 2024. Orientation may be virtual or in-person and has not been determined at this time. To be successful in your position, it is critical that GAs attend the entirety of the training from 9:00-5:00pm each day.

The hourly rate for this position is $20.00 per hour with a maximum of 20 hours each week. GAs will work with their supervisor to set a weekly schedule. GAs are only permitted to work when Northwestern classes are in session; not during university breaks and holidays. Some evening and weekend hours are necessary. Completion of a bi-weekly timesheet is required.

Responsibilities of the Graduate Assistant include:

- Assist MSA staff with the planning, implementation, and evaluation of MSA-sponsored programming focusing on the MENA community, including Arab Heritage Month in April
- Assist with the development, implementation, and improvement of new and existing programs based on MENA students' needs and feedback.
- Develop relationships with students through programming, one-on-one advising, and attending student group events.
- Attend a range of meetings with staff, students, and other community stakeholders to assist with community building and strategic planning efforts, including monthly CIC meetings and weekly MSA staff meetings.
- Assist in the advising of student groups.
- Establish and maintain connections with academic departments and assist with determining collaborative efforts.
- Support other programs, as appropriate, sponsored by departments within Campus Inclusion and Community, the Division of Student Affairs and the NU community.
- Serve as an MSA representative, as appropriate, during informational presentations and distribute general information about the office and its services/programs.
- Complete other duties as assigned.

To apply, please fill out the MSA Graduate Assistant Application Form.

About Northwestern University

Recognized both nationally and internationally for the quality of its educational programs at all levels, Northwestern University is a private institution founded in 1851. The University has two campuses located on Lake Michigan: a 240-acre campus in Evanston, the first suburb north of Chicago, and a 25-acre campus in Chicago. Northwestern also has a campus in Education City, Doha. Northwestern University in Qatar (Nu-Q) offers undergraduate degree programs in communication and journalism.

Northwestern combines innovative teaching and pioneering research in a highly collaborative environment that transcends traditional academic boundaries. It has distinguished itself by encouraging innovation and integrating experiences across fields. Northwestern provides students, faculty, and staff exceptional opportunities for intellectual, personal and professional growth in a setting enhanced by the richness of Chicago.

As one of the newest additions to the Division of Student Affairs, the Department of Campus Inclusion and Community is dedicated to collaborating with students, faculty, and staff with the aim of making Northwestern University an inclusive community for all Wildcats. DCIC's primary goal is to cultivate a community of respect at Northwestern. Visit our website for more information about the department: <http://www.northwestern.edu/inclusion>