COLLABORATION HIGHLIGHTS

The French Interdisciplinary Group (FIG) FIG was created in 1996 to promote long-term intellectual exchanges and collaborations in all disciplines with partner institutions in France. Ongoing research collaborations include projects on Security and Governance in Africa, Critical Theory, Early Modern Studies, and Contemporary Literature in English. FIG has established a dual PhD and several graduate exchanges.

The Summer Institute of Psychoanalysis is a joint venture of Northwestern University and Université Sorbonne-Nouvelle that was inaugurated in 2017. Doctoral and postdoctoral students in the humanities from Europe, Israel, Latin America, and the U.S., meet for an intensive weeklong workshop to study the intersection of psychoanalysis and the human sciences. In 2023, the Institute was held at the Sorbonne Nouvelle on the topic of "Psychoanalysis and Gender."
