COLLABORATION HIGHLIGHTS

The French Interdisciplinary Group (FIG) FIG was created in 1996 to promote long-term intellectual exchanges and collaborations in all disciplines with partner institutions in France. Ongoing research collaborations include projects on Security and Governance in Africa, Critical Theory, Early Modern Studies, and Contemporary Literature in English. FIG has established a dual PhD and several graduate exchanges.

The Summer Institute of Psychoanalysis is a joint venture of Northwestern University and Université Sorbonne-Nouvelle that was inaugurated in 2017. Doctoral and postdoctoral students in the humanities from Europe, Israel, Latin America, and the U.S., meet for an intensive weeklong workshop to study the intersection of psychoanalysis and the human sciences. In summer 2024, the Institute was held in Paris on the topic of "Psychoanalysis and Affect."

The Office of the Vice President for International Relations facilitates Northwestern's involvement in the Big Ten Academic Alliance International Research Experience Program (IREP) with the FIGURE network in France, coordinating short-term research opportunities for FIGURE master's degree students at Northwestern. Northwestern has participated in this program since its beginning in 2019, and has hosted several students from institutions such as Toulouse 3, Poitiers, Cergy-Pontoise, and Université de Strasbourg.
