Collaboration Highlights

French Interdisciplinary Group (FIG) FIG was created in 1996 to promote long-term intellectual exchanges and collaborations in all disciplines with partner institutions in France. Ongoing research collaborations include projects on Security and Governance in Africa, Critical Theory, Early Modern Studies, and Contemporary Literature in English. FIG has established a dual PhD and several graduate exchanges.

International Classroom Partnering Grants: The Office of the Vice President for International Relations together with the Buffett Institute for Global Affairs launched a virtual international classroom partnering grant in Fall 2020. Three of the eleven grants awarded that year were for projects with Northwestern partner institutions in France. Fadia Antabli (Weinberg - Middle East and North African Studies) and Alessia Ricciardi (Weinberg - Comparative Literary Studies) both collaborated with colleagues at Sorbonne Nouvelle (Paris 3), and Elizabeth Hurd (Weinberg - Political Science).
