Global Learning Office

Global Engagement Studies Institute (GESI) in Ghana: GESI is a study abroad program that focuses on service-learning in local organizations to advance community-driven change and that provides undergraduates with the knowledge, tools, and experiences to confront shared global challenges.

Kellogg School of Management

Global Poverty Research Lab: The Global Poverty Research Lab engages in research focused on understanding and finding solutions to poverty issues around the world. Projects produce working papers and datasets and use a cluster framework. Currently, clusters are centered around three countries, one of which is Ghana.

Alumni based in Ghana

*Due to the irregularities in student mobility due to the COVID-19 pandemic, this document contains data from 2019, the last full academic year prior to the imposed travel restrictions. All other information is up-to-date as of September 2021.