

AND SOUTH AFRICA 2022-2023

12 Students and Scholars from South Africa at Northwestern2

Undergraduate

6

Masters

2

Doctoral

2

Scholars*

*Scholars category includes visiting faculty, researchers, post-doctoral fellows and lecturers

123 Northwestern Students in South Africa30

Undergraduate

93

Graduate

30 undergraduate students on study abroad programs or journalism residencies, 2 medical students on clinical rotations, 9 MBA students on exchange program, 66 MBA students and 16 Medill Journalism students on short study trip

PROGRAMS AND PARTNERSHIPSGlobal Learning Office*Public Health and Development in South Africa: Undergraduate spring study abroad program at Stellenbosch University. Students study public health, development policies and political reform, with excursions to hospitals, grass roots organizations, private agencies, and Kruger National ParkGlobal Healthcare Technologies: Undergraduate winter study abroad program for engineering students at the Stellenbosch University. Students gain hands-on experience developing medical devices to improve health outcomes in resource-poor environmentsStellenbosch University: Fall, winter-spring, or full year undergraduate exchangeFeinberg School of Medicine*Stellenbosch University: Clinical rotations for medical students at Tygerberg Hospital, researchKellogg School of Management*University of Cape Town – Graduate School of Business: MBA exchangeMedill School of Journalism, Media, Integrated Marketing Communications*Journalism Residency in Cape Town or Johannesburg: Spring program open to undergraduate students in their junior year. Students work full time alongside veteran journalists in professional environments

~150

Alumni based in South AfricaOffice of the Vice President for International Relations
1800 Sherman Ave, Suite 4-700, Evanston, IL 60201
international@northwestern.edu / (847) 467-4915
www.northwestern.edu/international-relations