

NORTHWESTERS

Prof. Roloff has a son, born May 11. Sue Moore sails June 9 for England. Edwin F. Hirsch won a fellowship at Illinois. Lila Porter is engaged to Mr. Basel, of Peoria. Hester Moge, ex '11, will be married on June 8. Edith Cochran, '09, will be here for commencement. The '09 banner was the first to be placed in the gym. Ione Hardy will be registered in the School of Oratory. Melissa Foster will return for graduate work next year. Mr. and Mrs. Brownie Shepard are now living in Chicago. Leita Murdock will return next year for post-graduate work. Gilbert Campbell, '09, is engaged in Chicago playground work. Elsie Loring, '12, expects to attend Wellesly College next year. Arthur Williams has a fellowship at Northwestern for next year. Gladys Kaye will visit with A O II during Commencement week. Lenore Stirling will visit with II B Φ during Commencement week. Helen Lambert will return for work in the School of Music next year. Delia Williams, '09, will visit with K Δ during Commencement week. Amy Cowley, '10, has accepted a position in Lunt Library for next year. Elsie Mauritzon will return for work in the School of Oratory next year. Edith Baxter will be the guest of A O II during Commencement week. Miss Jeanette Wilson will teach in Drew Seminary, Mount Carmel, N. Y. Archibald O'Farrell, '08, with his wife, sailed March 1 for South Africa. The '08 class expects to have a new banner to carry in the alumni procession. Mrs. Guhl entertained at tea the S. A. I. chapter in honor of Lenta Fulwell. Louise Seeley returned to her home in South Dakota on account of poor health. Helen Schell and Bertha Howell will enter the Senior class at Northwestern next fall. Florence Collins, ex '11, has been the guest of Miss Mae Barlow for the past week. Arthur Strawson, '09, has married an Iowa girl and is now living in Rogers Park. Ruth Ward, Alice Barnes, Irmgard Esch and Henrietta Newton will attend summer school. Ruth Dysart, '08, who was here for the "Trig" play, is coming again for commencement. Gamma Phi Beta and Pi Beta Phi were given dances by their alumnæ Saturday night. The "Phoebe Snow" launch, so conspicuous on the lake, belongs to some of the Scribblers. William Spencer, '10, received a fellowship at the Chicago School of Civics and Philanthropy. Miss Edith Pritchard, who left the hospital a short time ago, is rapidly regaining her strength. Marie Scudder, who has been attending Bryn Mawr this year, will enter the Senior class at Northwestern next fall. Clara Kirkpatrick, '08, Mable Dillon, '09, and Pearl Greene, '09, will be in town Commencement week. The Delta Gammas are planning to have a house party at Pennellwood, Mich., the last week in June. Flossie Alma Abernethy, class '09, is teaching in the University of the Pacific, San Jose, California. Hazel Jewett, who has been teaching school this year, will enter the Junior class at Northwestern next fall. Ina Botkin, class '09, is teaching physical culture and coaching plays in Stephens College, Columbia, Mo. Γ Φ B will hold their annual banquet at the Avenue House June 1. Many alumni are expected to attend. Hazel Dallenbach, graduate of the Cumnock School of Oratory, will visit with X Ω during Commencement week. Alma Valora Heimerdinger, class '08, is teaching elocution and physical culture in Drew Seminary, Carmel, N. Y. Helen Cowles, and Amy Martin, '09, Gladys Paddock, '08, and Alice Griffin, '06, will return for Commencement week. Mabel Smith, A. M., is instructor in public speaking and physical training of State Normal School, Missoula, Mont. The members of Kappa Kappa Gamma and Kappa Alpha Theta had a very enjoyable beach party on Monday evening, May 16. Miss Margaret Clark, ex '10, of the Music School, sailed for Europe May 14, where she will remain until the latter part of August. Miss Augusta Wallis, ex '11, will be married on June 1 to Dr. Lake Alender, of Maryville, Mo., where they will make their home. Eleanor Pooley, '10, Lucile Crews, Delia Thorne, Cora Hollin and Hedwig Breneman, '08, of the Music School, will spend the summer in Europe. Misses Helen Thomas, Emma Hall, Florence Herbert, Rachael Jones, and Shirley Smith attended the wedding of Miss Vera Short at La Grange, Ind., last week. Bess Cowley, who has been at Washington University this year, will visit her sister Amy next week. Bess will return to Washington to finish her course there next year. The Kappa Kappa Gamma national convention will be held at Bloomington, Ind., the last week in August. A large number of the Northwestern chapter expect to attend. The Northwestern Settlement League, organized a year ago, and composed of college alumni and professors, was invited to attend the May Festival at the Settlement last week. Glenn Merry has done fine work in debating this year. He won the Kirk and Sargent prizes, made third place in the N. O. L. contest, and second place in the Interstate Peace Debate. Arthur Gates, A. B., who graduated from Northwestern University in 1905 and from Cumnock School of Oratory in 1906, is director of the Department of Public Speaking, Miami University, Oxford, Ohio.

Ruth Gates entertained for Miss Alice Christopher, whose engagement was announced earlier in the year, at her home in Wilmette on the evening of April 30. Miss Helen Hale gave a card party in Miss Christopher's honor on May 21. Arthur T. Jolley, who graduated from Cumnock School of Oratory in 1907 and from Northwestern University in 1908, and is now director of oratory school, Genesee Wesleyan Seminary, Lima, N. Y., has been recently married. The '09 class will have a big reception and dinner on Alumni Day. It has had three reunions this year, at the homes of Katheryn Kletzings, Estelle Clark and Edna Konsberg. The alumni officers are John Berg, president, and Edith Knox, secretary and treasurer. Delta Delta Delta national convention will be held in Evanston June 21-26. Δ T Δ has offered its house for the use of the alumnæ of the Northwestern chapter. Delegates from the other chapters will stay at Willard Hall, while the Collegian will accommodate the overflow. An European tour will be conducted by Miss Raitt and Miss Harris this summer. The party will sail June 14 on the "New Amsterdam," and will visit France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Holland, England and Scotland. Harriet Prince, Lucile Corwin, Virginia Walker, Mildred Kurtz, Edith Foster, Elizabeth Foster, Lois Richards and Agnes Burns are included in the party. Some of the girls will take a trip up the Hudson and will attend the West Point commencement before leaving for Europe.

ORATORY NOTES

SENIORS.

The Senior Ball was held at Kenilworth May 12. Miss Clara McKnight will teach in Ward Academy, South Dakota. Dr. Cumnock sails for Europe June 9 and will return about the middle of August. Miss Farrell goes to Portland the first of June, where she will spend her vacation. Mrs. William DuGaine, formerly Miss Cordelia Vollrath, is living in Oswego, N. Y. The engagement of Marie Everz to Mr. Ernest Jacobs of Aurora, Ill., has been announced. Miss Florence Baker is assistant instructor in elocution in Carlton College, Minn., for next year. The marriage of Carolyn Kaltenbrunn, of Wilmette, to Mr. William Chandler, of Chicago, took place last September. Gertrude Lutsch, class '08, who is teaching in Girton School, Winnetka, Ill., will soon present "As You Like It" on the Girton campus. Miss Alice Sullivan goes to Howard Payne College, Fayette, Mo., this September, as assistant in the department of Oratory and Physical Culture. Paul M. Pearson, A. M., professor of Oratory and English, Swarthmore College, has recently received the degree of Litt. D. from his Alma Mater, Baker University. A reunion of Zeta Phi Eta was held at the time of the Cumnock Alumni reunion. Among those present were Winnifred Ward, Ora Carver and Nellie Atwood.

P. G.'S.

Miss Lovedale will be in Canada the greater portion of June, July and August. Miss Martin has accepted the position of teacher of elocution in Miss Eills' School for Girls, Faribault, Minn. Miss Aronson of the post graduate class of '10 will teach elocution in the College for Young Women, Stranton, Va., this coming winter. Prof. F. L. Lardner will do C work in Iowa, Minnesota and Missouri during July and August. His lecture recitals will comprise the following subjects:

1. "Literature and Life."
2. "Burns and the Common People."
3. "Wordsworth and the Life of the Spirit."
4. "Riley: His Outlook Upon Life."
5. "Dunbar and His People."
6. "The Christ Spirit in Modern Literature."

The members of Sigma Sigma had a luncheon on the beach Wednesday, May 18. The following new members were elected:

Sarah Wheelock, K A Θ.
 Frances Stiever, K K Γ.
 Edna Luke, Mabel Sell, Γ Φ B.
 Alice Kaiser, II B Φ.
 Helen Shurtleff, X Ω.
 Alice Barnes, Δ Δ Δ.
 Winifred Cox, Clara Landon, K Δ.
 Margaret Mea, A O II.

Do your feet ever hurt?

Rest them in this Red Cross Shoe

It bends with your foot

Oxfords $3.50, $4.
 High Shoes $4, $5.

The Reliable
 HEAD-TO-FOOT OUTFITTERS TO WOMEN
 806-08 DAVIS ST. EVANSTON, ILL.