ENGLISH PROFICIENCY

All new J-1 scholars must provide evidence of English Language Proficiency using one of the six options below. Please check the option you have used to demonstrate English Language Proficiency. Attach this form and supporting documentation (copy of diploma or score report) to the DS-2019 request. Only complete the verbal interview rubric below if that is your chosen method of documentation.

Copy of a diploma or other signed documentation that the Exchange Visitor earned a degree from an institution of higher education where the majority or the entirety of coursework was done in English

TOEFL Score of at least 57 (87 if the visitor will be teaching) from the past 2

IELTS score of at least 5.5 (7.0 if the visitor will be teaching) from the past 2

J-Check/iTEP score of at least 45 (65 if the visitor will be teaching) from the past 2 years

Cambridge English score of at least 162 (185 if the visitor will be teaching) from the past 2 years

English3 interview of at least 3 (4 if the visitor will be teaching) from the past 2 years

Documented verbal interview using the rubric below with a score of at least "minimal working proficiency"

Interview Guidelines: if the Exchange Visitor has lived, worked, or studied in an English-speaking country for two years within the past 5 years, a verbal interview can be used to evaluate English proficiency.

Suggestions for interview questions:

1. What are your goals for coming to Northwestern University?
2. What types of activities do you enjoy in your free time?
3. Do you (the prospective exchange visitor) have any questions about your visit?
