

Technical Services - AV Technician

POSITION DETAILS

DESCRIPTION

The Norris Technical Services AV Technicians are vital members of the Event Management team. They are responsible for the setup and strike of A/V equipment for all events in the Norris Center, the distribution of AV rental equipment for events in other venues, and the maintenance of our AV systems.

HUMAN RESOURCES DETAILS

Shifts: 8-15 hours/week • Mornings, evenings, and weekends available

Starting Wage: $15.00 per hour

Reports To: Production Coordinator and Production Student Supervisors

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

AV Technicians report directly to the Technical Services Manager, but also take on-shift direction from our team of professional Technical Specialists. Duties include distribution of AV rentals, maintaining AV rental equipment, assisting clients with basic AV in our meeting rooms, and serving as a dedicated technician on events requiring additional support. AV Technicians may at times be the only Technical Services staff on duty, but work in a team environment alongside Productions, Event Planning, Performance and Satellite Venues, and other event support staff.

The position offers shifts in a set schedule, with additional event specific shifts assigned a la carte. AV Technicians must attend quarterly meetings, trainings and regular staff development and advancement opportunities throughout the academic year. Staff members in this position are also subject to mid-year evaluations and end of year assessments. Opportunities for leadership roles and advancement are available through the student employment program at Norris.
