Organization Name	Overview	Student Contact
Flux Dance Project	Our goal is to create an open space where Northwestern students can dance for dancing's sake. We hold weekly dance classes and provide members with opportunities to participate in all aspects of producing dance concept videos throughout the year.	Andie Nolla
Living in Color	An artist collective founded by Northwestern undergraduate students - a space for those who live in color (including people of color, queer and trans artists, artists of migrant identities, and more) to express themselves through various media.	Eliza Gonring
Unity Charity Fashion Show	UNITY Charity Fashion Show is an annual event sponsored by diverse student groups from across campus. Together, students from all backgrounds come together for their love of fashion and raise money for a different charity every year.	Michelle Soram Kim / Olivia Stelmaszczyk
