

Code of Conduct for Northwestern University Traveling as a School Entity

Students who participate in and traveling as a part of a Northwestern entity are representatives of Northwestern for the duration of their time during the trip. Students are expected to conduct themselves appropriately and respectfully at all times. Students participating in and traveling as a part of a Northwestern entity are expected to abide by the Student Code of Conduct of Northwestern University.

The following are prohibited:

1. Violence against others. This is defined as striking or doing any physical harm to another
2. Verbal abuse of students or others
3. Theft, damage, or vandalism to property of host lodging
4. Disorderly, disruptive, threatening, or intimidating conduct, gestures or actions
5. Criminal behavior or violation of local laws
6. Self-endangerment, including involvement in activities or behaviors that could result in personal harm, including, but not limited to, frequenting dangerous places, association with criminals, repeated intoxication, etc...
7. Alcohol or drug policy violation
 - a. Alcohol may be consumed, within reasonable limits, by students who are of legal age. Students who choose to consume alcohol do so with the knowledge that they remain responsible for their actions at all times and are expected to drink responsibly. We prohibit the illegal distribution of alcohol to students who are not of legal drinking age. Further, excessive and irresponsible drinking leading to intoxication and behavior that interferes with the program or rights of others is subject to immediate disciplinary action. Students are prohibited from selling, using, or possessing any drugs that are considered be illicit or illegal.
 - b. Northwestern University policy prohibits the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol by its students and employees on University property, as part of any University activities, in vehicles owned or operated by the University, or at any work site or other location at which University duties are being performed by Northwestern employees.
 - c. Students are expected to comply with criminal laws and University policies regarding the sale, use, and possession of drugs, drug paraphernalia, or other controlled substances

As a participant in a Northwestern University student organization, I _____ hereby agree to the aforementioned statements.